ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS
for
EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM MANAGER
ABOUT THE ORGANIZATION

Founded in 1914, ACUI is a nonprofit educational organization that brings together college union and student activities professionals from hundreds of schools in seven countries. Its members work on urban and rural campuses, in two-year and four-year institutions and at large and small schools. Our members advance campus community, and we support them through education, advocacy, and comprehensive programs and services.
VISION STATEMENT

ACUI is committed to becoming the innovative, responsive, and inclusive leader in creating progressive education, training, and research in college unions and student activities to excel in meeting member needs, impacting student learning, and enhancing campus communities.

STAFF GUIDING PRINCIPLES
As association leaders for the profession, we provide members what they need before they ask, enabling them to champion success.

STEWARDSHIP
We feel deeply responsible for the care of our members, association resources, and the stability and growth of the organizations with which we have the privilege to serve.

THOUGHTFUL
Whether designing a program, providing a service, or solving a problem, we are intentional to examine information, consider options, and explore creative solutions.

TEAMWORK
While each of us may be working on more than one project at the same time, we work together effectively and efficiently to deliver the highest quality programs and services to the members we serve.
WORK ANYWHERE

Our Central Office is located in Bloomington, Indiana, also the well-known home of Indiana University. This position is remote and can be performed from anywhere you have a stable internet connection. As our home office is in Indiana, remote work hours are Eastern time.
Reporting to the Senior Diversity Officer, the Educational Program Manager plans and implements events, services, and professional development programs for ACUI members. This professional leads efforts focused on education around diversity, equity, inclusion, and social justice. Additionally, this staff member advises volunteer teams, manages key educational initiatives as assigned, and administers ACUI’s Communities of Practice program. A complete job description is available at acui.org/job.
APPLY

For full consideration, please email your resume and a cover letter indicating your interest and experience for the position to acui@acui.org. Review of applications will begin immediately; the position is open until filled.